MOVE TO SAVE BATTLEFIELD FACING CRISIS, ROTARY TOLD

John J. Coughlin, Harrisburg, immediate past president of the Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association, asked aid from both the federal government and the general public to "save the battlefield" in a talk before the Rotary Club Monday night at the YWCA.

Noting that the association has committed itself to purchase the Meals farm to help save the "first day's battlefield" area, Coughlin said contributions are not being received swiftly enough to keep current with the payments as they are due on the tract.

Noting that the property had at one time been "Number One on the list of properties the federal government desired to preserve," Coughlin asked members to write their congressman and the National Park Service to provide some federal funds to complete purchase of the property. "We have paid $50,000 on the farm from pennies, dimes, quarters and dollars sent in by people throughout the United States. I think that the donations of the general public have proven there is great interest. I don't see how the federal government could let that amount go down the drain."

"NEED HELP NOW"

Giving a brief history of the battlefield and its development from the time a few weeks after the Battle of Gettysburg when a local attorney, David McConaughy, began collecting funds to buy battlefield land and preserve it as a memorial, Coughlin observed, "For 90 years it did not matter much who owned the land. It was all in farms as it was at

KIWANIANS TOLD ABOUT SPECIAL "ED"

Greater understanding on the part of the public of the problems of the teachers and the schools in the special education field was asked by Miss Elizabeth Rutledge, supervisor of special education in Adams County, in a talk at the weekly dinner meeting of the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club Monday evening at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

Miss Rutledge talked on the subject of "The Emotionally Disturbed Children in Our Schools" and explained first what is meant by mental health and then described the characteristics of emotionally disturbed children.

She expressed the opinion that frequently these children belong in clinics or diagnostic divisions rather than the classroom but the state has insufficient facilities to take care of them and "our schools must try to solve this problem."

CITES SUCCESSES

"There is an average of one such pupil in each classroom and they cause serious difficulties for the others and for the teacher," Miss Rutledge said. "They seldom get along with the others, they are unhappy and have poor achievement records in spite of their abilities. For these children the community must show greater interest than formerly and special programs must be established in our schools," the speaker said.

She described the special education work as it operates today in Adams County and gave some examples of cases where emotionally disturbed children have been helped.

Vice President Roy Thomas presided at the meeting.

GOP CAMPAIGN FUND REPORT IS FILED HERE

Jacob W. Menges, treasurer of the Adams County Republican Committee, has placed his annual report on file at the courthouse covering the 1961 campaign.

It shows only $1,500 has been received by the treasurer from the party's fund raising dinner at the college dining hall last October while $2,733.50 was paid to the Mathias Co. for catering the meal.

County Chairman H. Earl Pitzer said today that not all of the receipts from the $10 per plate dinner have been turned over to the treasurer and the first $1,500 was paid in only to insure enough funds to cover expenses. The dinner was handled by the party's finance committee and most of the ticket money has not yet reached the party treasurer.

REPORT ON CAMPAIGN

The account lists $8,586.80 in expenses during the campaign, of which $2,555 went in payments of $15 each to the approximately 100 committeemen and payments of $5 or $10 each to various watchers and haulers taking part in the election. Approximately $3,000 was expended for the fund raising dinner, of which the largest sum was for the catering service. Other amounts were for labor, advertising, photography, etc.

Other expenditures during the period included approximately $700 to the Cashtown Fire Co. Auxiliary for catering the annual Republican rally at the South Mountain Fairgrounds and a committee. Various sums were expended for rental of the fair-

U.N. Secretary Orders Jets To Quell Congo Fighting

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)— Acting Secretary General U. Thant today ordered jet planes flown into Elisabethville for use in support of U.N. forces in the strife-torn Katanga capital.

A U.N. spokesman said the jets would be used to "support ground action by the U. N. troops, and to destroy any aircraft that take hostile action against U.N. positions."

The spokesman said this was in line with U. Thant's directive to U.N. forces to take what action they deem fit to restore order.

Brig. K. A. S. Raja, an Indian, has been ordered by U. Thant to take over control from U.N. civilian officials in Elisabethville, thus putting the United Nations on a virtual war footing.

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP)—Fighting broke out in Elisabethville today between U.N. and Katanga forces, and many Africans fled the city in panic.

All members of President Moise Tshombe's Cabinet were reported by diplomatic and U.N. sources to have left this capital of secessionist Katanga Province.

Mortar fire and heavy firing were heard outside the telegraph office, near U.N. headquarters and in the direction of the airport, seven miles outside the city.

Find Most Parents Want Children At Home In Case Of Nuclear Bomb Attack

The Bermudian Springs Joint School District Monday evening became the first school district in the county to tackle the knotty problem of bomb shelters and schools and decide upon a course of action.

On the basis of studies by a special committee named a month ago and a questionnaire circulated to the parents of district school children, the joint school board Monday evening voted to have local Civil Defense chairmen have surveys made of school facilities for fallout shelter sites and directed that the school's bus services be organized so that school children could be taken home in case of sufficient warning before a nuclear attack.

The special committee reported it had 400 completed questionnaires from parents with 105 of them expressing a preference for making an effort to get their children home from school in case of attack. Another 138 preferred that the school authorities send the children home on foot or by bus and 125 were in favor of having the schools provide the best possible shelters.

ELECT TOWNSEND

The York Springs Civil Defense chairman, Harry Fackel, attended the meeting and answered questions. He and Leonard Myers of East Berlin will contact the appropriate state agency in an effort to have shelter possibilities in the joint school district, which includes both York Springs and East Berlin, surveyed for shelter potentials.

Former President Ralph Tyson presided at Monday's meeting at the Bermudian Springs High School. Tyson is currently board secretary but presided in the absence of the president and vice president, Nineteen directors attended.

Marvin S. Fox, Bendersville; Rev. Nevin P. Frantz, Arendtsville, and Guy L. Deardorff, Tyrone Twp., were sworn in as new members of the board by Secretary David Houck. The latter two were re-elected in the November election. Fox is a new member. The board thus drops nine members from the previous year under a new setup as the result of the recent merger. Twelve more members will drop out in 1963 when their terms expires, and three members will be elected at-large that year, leaving the board with nine members.

NEW INSURANCE

The board approved a recommendation by the property committee that the school place its fire insurance with Latham and Stevens Co., Harrisburg. The new policy will cover all school property under the new public and institutional program for insurance. The schools must certify each year to the company the replacement content and named delinquencies as appraisers.

Business Manager Houck, in his annual football report, said, "This was the best year financially in a long time."

Superintendent Donald Hudson reported the Biglerville Garden Club will place shrubbery in front of the new high school. He said that students participating in the wrestling and basketball programs have been insured.

Hudson told the board that last week a fire drill was held in each of the buildings. The schools were cleared of students as follows: Biglerville Elementary, 58 seconds; Bendersville Elementary, 40 seconds; Arendtsville Elementary, 60 seconds; Biglerville High School, 60 seconds.

U.S. May Launch Man Into Orbit As Early As Dec. 20

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The United States pressed ahead today toward its goal of orbiting a man around the world this year. Scientists, engineers and technicians worked round the clock and astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., the chosen pilot, began extensive preparation in a "ready room" not far from the launching pad.

If all goes right, the attempt could be made as early as Dec. 20. Technical problems could delay the launching, and major trouble could push it into 1962.

Glenn moved Monday into special quarters on the Cape so he could be near all key centers of Project Mercury operations.

Not far away are the launching pad where the huge Atlas booster rocket was erected Saturday; the hangar where Glenn's spacecraft is undergoing thorough checkout, the Mercury control center, nerve center of the operation, and a ground-based capsule where he can run through simulated flights of his projected three times around the world mission.

FALLS FROM BICYCLE

Michael Arendt, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arendt, R. 6, was treated Monday at the Warner Hospital for a laceration of the right elbow suffered in a fall from a bicycle.

No Action On "Xmas Gift"

No action was taken by borough council Monday night on a suggestion, made by a number of persons that the town give the public a "Christmas gift" in the form of free parking in the metered zone during the Christmas period.

A number of communities have abandoned meter collections during the period and it was suggested that Gettysburg follow suit. A resolution of would be required to set aside the ordinance which provides for operation of the meters except Sunday and holidays.

Council did not mention the idea at its meeting Monday—thus the ordinance remains in effect.

LIONS DIP INTO CHARITY FUND FOR TWO GIFTS

The Gettysburg Lions Club announced payment of its third and final $500 installment on its pledge to the development plan at Gettysburg College Monday evening at its weekly dinner meeting at the VFW Home. The payment comes from the club's charity fund as does a $15 payment to the current Muscular Dystrophy campaign.

Twenty-eight members of the Upper Adams Lions Club attended the meeting with their president, Cecil Snyder, bringing greetings in their behalf. In a brief ceremony he presented special membership awards to the Rev. Nevin Frantz and Ralph Eckenrode.

President David Bloser presided at the meeting at which Frank Zettle, county farm agent, and Wesley Kriebel, program consultant in the farm's agent's office, were the speakers. They talked on the need for community planning "as suburbia competes with agriculture for land and leadership."

DELAY CD PROGRAM

The speakers reviewed state and county population growth and noted that the area within a one-hour driving radius of Gettysburg has a population of nearly a million and a half and has increased by 28 per cent in the (Continued On Page 2)

REGULAR CHECKUPS

With a more demanding assignment before him, Glenn, 40, a Marine lieutenant colonel, entered the quarters early to prepare for the flight. He will undergo periodic physical and psychological examinations, bone up on space roadmaps so stars and ground features will be readily recognized when he looks out of his spaceship as it zips around the world at 17,500 miles an hour, and he will hold numerous consultations on progress of the missile and capsule.

Glenn will live in the quarters most of the time until launching. But he will be able to leave the Cape when his training does not restrict him. His wife, Anna, their two children will remain at their home in Arlington, Va.

THE NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION HAS NOT ANNOUNCED THAT MANNED ORBIT WILL BE TRIED THIS YEAR. BUT IT IS KNOWN OFFICIALS WANT TO ACHIEVE IT IN 1961, THE SAME YEAR AS THE SOVIET UNION.

They concluded by discussing the means by which county and community planning can be undertaken and achieved. Thirty-five counties in the state now have planning commissions on a county-wide basis. While public opinion was described as the key to progress on community planning, the importance of real estate subdivision control was emphasized and zoning was called the "most controversial" part of planning.

Councilwoman Mrs. Rebecca Schwenk reported that the 'Health Committee hopes to have recommendations next month on joining with the county to establish public rest rooms."

EXPRESS THANKS

President Guise expressed his appreciation to council for its cooperation with him during his term. Council will name a new president in January. Burgess Plank expressed his appreciation for the work of council. He attended his last meeting Monday. In January he will present his report. He will be succeeded by William G. Weaver.

Mrs. Guyon Buehler, retiring president of the Women's Civic Council, expressed the appreciation of the women's group to council for its work during the last two years and congratulated Councilmen Philip M. Jones, John Welsh and Mahlon P. Hartzell on their re-election. They will be sworn in as "new" councilmen in January. The incoming president of the Women's Civic Council, Mrs. Robert Harpster, expressed the appreciation of the women's group to Mayor Plank for his four years of service to the community.

EXTEND AVENUE

Councilman Hartzell will complete 12 years as a councilman December 31.

Council approved ordinance of an extension to Reynolds Ave. and an alley to the extension.

An ordinance was passed permitting placing of window boxes in accordance with the "Campaign Gettysburg" suggestions. The boxes may extend up to two feet over the sidewalk, but must be kept in good repair and the contents of the boxes may not be of a "noxious variety." The penalty for failure to maintain the window boxes in good condition and permitting "noxious" plants to grow in them is a fine of "up to $25."

Mayor Plank commended Chief of Police Jack Bartlett and Sgt. Miller "for outstanding performance of duty during the last four years" and added that "all the other officers have done well in performing a difficult task." He also commended the solicitor and secretary.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

The possibility of increasing the membership of the Recreation Board from five to seven was discussed but no action taken.

Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner reported sewer and water lines have been installed in the Recreation Field for the new rest room facilities that will be placed there. He thanked the C. E. Williams' Sons Co. and the Municipal Authority for donating services in the construction.

Authority was given the property committee to buy new tires for the town truck.

The meeting was over in 50 minutes. After that council entered into executive session from which reporters and public were barred. There was no announcement of what was discussed at the executive session.

U.N. Secretary

Relations under the truce worsened after Tshombe made his "poisoned arrow" speech in response to new U.N. Security Council orders to the U.N. Command to use force if necessary to remove the mercenaries. The resolution declared Katanga's secession illegal.

"We don't all have rifles and automatic weapons but we do have our poisoned arrows, spears, knives and axes," Tshombe said.

REMOVE ROAD BLOCK

The fighting broke out today after Foreign Minister Evariste Kimba, acting as ranking official in the absence of Tshombe in Paris, agreed to removal of a road block thrown up Monday between the airport and the city. Indian troops guard the airport.

Urquhart said the Katangans not only did not carry out the agreement but set up other barriers isolating Swedish and Irish U.N. camps from the city.

Then the U.N. official announced the discovery of a Katanga battle plan, and said fighting was unavoidable.

He said Katanga ministers, quitting the capital, handed over government affairs to the prov-

A. McInerney, O.P., professor of philosophy and theology at De Paul University, Chicago, was the principal speaker. He told the conference:

"The open, the underhand, the half-hearted attacks on lawfully constituted fraternities and sororities are result of ignorance or malice. For an institution of higher learning to be guilty of either is unthinkable. To proclaim the attack in the sacred name of patriotism, civil rights, man's humanity or his religion reveals the grossest kind of ignorance."

Panel discussions were held dealing with scholarship, appraisal of NIC and public relations on a national basis for NIC.

Gen. David Shoup, commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps, was the principal speaker at the closing banquet.

The Gettysburg Alumni Interfraternity Council will hold a luncheon meeting Saturday noon in the college dining hall to hear reports from delegates and transact other business. Eugene Hartman, the president, will preside.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Reduce Their Own Salaries:
Gettysburg's new school board

cut the salaries of its own officers at the organization meeting held on Monday afternoon in the directors' room in the Meade building, the secretary to serve for $50.00 a year instead of for $125.00 as before, and the treasurer to serve without pay.

Robert C. Miller, who was elected secretary, said that he thought that a citizen should be willing to give his services out of public spirit and that no pay should be requested. The other directors seemed to be of the opinion, however, that the work involved merited some compensation and $50.00 was agreed upon as a fair salary, the salary paid the secretaries of some of the local fraternal orders being taken as a means of establishing the figure.

Millinery Shop Sold: Steffy and Power have sold their millinery shop on Baltimore street to Miss Alice Epley who has been with Miss Anna M. Beck for some time. Miss Epley has taken charge and Miss Kathleen Power will remain with her for several days. The shop was sold through a local which appeared in The Times.

Big Apple Season: Today the Musselman Canning Company of Hagerstown closed their season of 1961 and on Friday will give a banquet for 165 employees at their plant. During the season just closed they handled 75,000 bushels of apples, all of which were from Adams County. This made a total output of one hundred carloads of canned fruit, 425,000 gallon cans being required. This is an increase of almost 50 per cent over last year.

Burgess Appointed: Amos Crum was on Tuesday appointed Burgess of Bendersville to succeed Dr. J. G. Stover, who had tendered his resignation. The appointment was made by the Court.

A petition was presented to Court from citizens of Menallen township asking for the appointment of viewers to vacate and supply a public road in that township. The Court appointed C. W. Heikes, Harry J. March and John S. Rhodes.

Large Water Tank Bursts: The Long furniture plant at Hanover was partially wrecked at noon Thursday when the large 25,000 gallon water tank fell tearing a hole through the finishing department of the building and wrecking one of the walls. There were no casualties, as all but one of the workmen were out of the building at the time. Morris Kessler was the man and he was scalded by steam which escaped from a broken steam pipe.

The cause of the accident is not known, but it is attributed to faulty construction. Just where the defect was is not known. Nothing will be done in the way of making repairs until the plant has been examined by representatives of the Automatic Sprinkling Company of New York City.

Was Printer For Forty Years: John L. Ginch died on Sunday morning at four o'clock at his home between Hunterstown and New Chester after an illness of several months, aged 71 years 1 month and 26 days.

For forty years Mr. Ginch was in the employ of the Government in the printing office at Washington where he spent the greater part of the year though he always managed to spend some time on his farm near the Pine Church, midway between Hunterstown and New Chester. He retired from the Government employ a little more than a year ago.

DIVINE COMPATIBILITY
Can there be anything more divine than to find another one in this world who is able to trot along with you in full compatibility of spirit?

No matter how rich a field may be, it must have rain at the right time and careful and thoughtful full cooperation between the field, the seed planted, and the one who hopes to reap the harvest, plus the goodness of Nature.

And in the same way are we fed, lifted up and made valuable to the world! Our spirits must be linked with those who are compatible with us, else the seeds of discord, eruption, and misunderstanding ruin the harvest we planned to reap.

More and more I am impressed with the fact that a compatible human being is more to be desired than great riches, than rare fame, than vast enterprises that cause people to wonder at one's genius.

Just to have one cherished friend — someone who is learned in life — someone who has suffered much, borne greatly through the heat of the day, and yet remained patient and kindly. This seems to me to be the fortune of divine luck.

And this divine compatibility may bear its fruit in so many places and under all sorts of conditions. But it always means shaking hands, spiritually, in the first place.

This is what happiness is anyway — being compatible with life and with all that life offers. And with those people and things with which we cannot be compatible then, for us, that is a part of life that should be shifted from us. Or, rather, we should shift from it.

There is so much in which we may all abide happily. The earth is rich in golden ore that individuals have to mine for themselves or go without, for appreciation comes largely by doing something that merits appreciation.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Starting And Finishing"

Just Folks

THE FREE MAN

"It's no man's business what I say,
And no man's business what I do.

I have the right of choice by day,
The right all pleasures to pursue,
And whether I shall rise or fall
Concerns my neighbors not at all.

"Let others in their narrow views
Find comfort if they will, or can;

A fuller freedom here I choose;
I'll not be slave to any man,
I'll roam the world; nor friend
nor foe
Shall point to me the way to go."

And so he did as he had said;
Scorned laws, opinions, customs, creeds,
Wandered where'er his fancies led,
But lacking money for his needs
This free man turned to those he'd spurned.

And asked to share in what they'd earned,
Once snared within a dismal pit,
This free man feebly cried for aid.

He who had loudly boasted it
Was no man's business where he strayed,
Thought in his days of grief and doubt
That every man should help him out.

BERMUDIAN HIPPED 36-35 BY MUSTANGS

Bermudian Springs staged a desperate second half rally but failed to overcome a 10-point halftime deficit as it lost a thrilling 36-35 decision to South Western on the Eagles' floor Monday evening.

Coach Glenn Gruver's outfit fell behind 23-13 at half time but, led by Tom Hardy 6-4, came back strong in the third period to slash the Mustangs' advantage to 28-25. South Western held onto its lead and was on top by five points with three minutes left and then staggered home to a one-point victory.

Hardy led all scorers with 21 points. Jim Bankert topped the winners with 13.

Bermudian won an exciting preliminary game 32-31.

The Eagles, now 0-2, clash with Boiling Springs Wednesday evening on the Bermudian floor.

ASK HIS EVALUATION

Supervising Principal Amos D. Meyers recommended to the board that application be made to the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools to have the Bermudian Springs High School evaluated by the commission in 1963-64 for the first time.

The board approved the recommendation and it was noted that an evaluation of the high school at the local level will precede the general evaluation by the commission.

Dr. Robert Potts, East Berlin, was elected as school dentist. The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Roxine Thompson as a teacher of English and French in the high school, effective January 1.

The directors also opened bids on a tractor, snow removal equipment and lawn mowers and referred them to the property committee for study and recommendation.

the time of the battle. Now that there is a need for more land for houses and businesses it is only right that the private owners of the land be allowed to develop it as they see fit, or that the land be bought and turned over to the government. Actually it would seem logical that the federal government should buy it itself, but I am afraid that perhaps the amount required is too little. If it were in the billions perhaps the government would be more interested."

Urging members of the Rotary Club to write immediately to congressmen and the Park Service, "and interest any of your friends who wish to donate to do so—remember it is tax deductible," Co-baugh said, "In the words of Gen. Buford on the afternoon of July 1, 1863, 'we need help now'—not next month, or next year—we need help and we need it badly, right now."

Frederick Tilberg Jr. was introduced as the student member of Rotary for December. Thomas Washburn reported tickets for the Oilers-Mt. St. Mary's basketball game at New Oxford "just about sold out."

Vice President Clark Smith introduced the speaker, President Dr. Richard Newsham presided at the meeting.

G-BURG OPENS MAT CAMPAIGN AT VIRGINIA

Gettysburg College's wrestling team will launch its new campaign when it tangles with the University of Virginia Friday evening in the first of 11 scheduled matches. The match is slated for 7:30 p.m. in Charlottesville, Va.

Jack Ridinger, starting his fifth season at the Buller helm, will have only three letters on hand to inaugurate the season. Terry Looker, Camp Hill; Jim White, Malvern, and John Young, Shamokin, round out the returning vets. Looker will be called upon to fill the gap vacated by two-time Middle Atlantic Conference heavyweight champion, Mike Pacilio. Looker has had experience in the heavyweight class but was primarily a 177-pounder.

Young, who has wrestled at both 167 and 177, will be the number one man in the 177 class. White will retain his former post in the 157-pound division.

Ridinger says his squad will have a little more depth and will be a little stronger in all the classes, but in the same breath says his grapplers may still be a year away from their full capacity. Ridinger is going to have to count on many sophomores to fill the gap, but, because of a lack of personnel in several divisions last season, the sophomores were able to gain experience in exhibition matches.

The leading candidates among the sophomore crop are Bruce Pritchard, Glen Rock, N. J., 123 pounds; Hayes Kline, Newport, 130 pounds; Dick Santillo, Norristown, 137 pounds, and Frank Ursomarsio, Drexel Hill, in the 167-pound class.

Junior Jim Pipal, Teaneck, N. J., has been receiving stiff competition from Sophomore John Bushnell, Abington, in the 147-pound division. Both have equal ability and either one could be a good starter against Virginia.

Kline took part in the most exhibitions as yet, giving him a slight edge in experience. Santillo has the best background among the sophomores, wrestling in both high school and prep school.

Following the Virginia match Friday, the Buller grapplers will be idle until January 6 when they will travel to Williamsport to take on Lycoming.

2 Chambersburg Players Gain Honors In All-State Scholastic Grid Choices

By FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Bill Malinchak of Monessen and George Garrett of Pottsville, a pair of holdovers from the 1960 team, led a squad of 66 players named today by sportswriters and sportscasters to the 1961 Pennsylvania Associated Press All-State Scholastic Football Team.

Malinchak, 6-foot-1 end for the new WPIAL-AA champions, was a solid first team choice at end this year after filling that position on last year's third team.

Garrett, the 190-pound guard who was the inner works of Pottsville's tough defense, stepped up a notch from the second to the first team.

The sportswriters and sportscasters nominated 288 candidates for the AP team, including 30 ends, 52 tackles, 35 guards, 19 centers and 144 backs.

The players named to the first three teams and to the three honorable mention teams represented the cream of the crop.

PLACE TWO PLAYERS

Monessen, with Malinchak and halfback Eric Crabtree, 185-pound senior who scored 13 touchdowns and passed for 12 others, was the only school to put two men on the first team.

John Soprano, smallest man on the team at 5-feet-6 and 150 pounds, set something of a precedent in becoming the first nominee from the northeastern tier counties to win a first team berth. Soprano played halfback for Sayre which was unbeaten this season and now has won 19 straight games.

Malinchak's teammate at end is Jim Rowe, a shade over 6 feet and weighing 195 pounds, from York, whose many talents included field goal kicking. He kicked five this year. The shortest was 28 yards and the longest was 52 yards.

At tackle is John Carber of Nesheim, the only candidate from the southeastern part of the state to win a place on the squad. Carber is the biggest boy on the first team, standing 6-feet-4 and weighing 220 pounds.

The other tackle is John Zarkovich, a three-year regular for Chief Logan, which has compiled the current longest winning string in the state at 22 games. Zarkovich is 5-feet-11 and weighs 193 pounds.

He was one of three Chief Logan players to make the squad. Quarterback Dick Gingrich was chosen for the third team and halfback Gary Rowe was among the honorable mention players.

At guard with Garrett is Altona's Howard (Brad) Keyes, 5-feet-11 and 195 pounds.

Bob Finley, of Harrisburg Harris Central Penn champions, was named center. He also is 5-feet-11 and 195 pounds.

BEAVER FALLS QB
First choice among the quarterbacks was Karlin (Butch) Ryan of Beaver Falls, 180-pounder rated as a top all-around player. Ryan scored 11 touchdowns, passed for nine others, kicked 15 extra points and one field goal. The field goal preserved Beaver Falls' two-year all-winning record against tough Farrell in a 16-14 contest. In that game, Ryan also returned an intercepted pass for one touchdown and a kickoff 85 yards for the other.

The fullback choice to run with halfbacks Crabtree and Soprano is Coal Twp.'s Ron Nalewak, a 215-pounder considered the major reason for his school's outstanding success in the East Penn Conference this season.

Nalewak scored 22 touchdowns and against Danville, whom Coal beat, 26-6, he tallied all his team's points.

All the first team choices are seniors. Competition for the end, tackle, and guard positions was especially rough this year and some top boys had to be eliminated in paring the squad to six deep.

The second team was headed by end Larry Rudy of Danville and quarterback Paul Dennebaum of West Scranton, both of whom narrowly missed the first team.

Other second team choices were: End, Bob Stock, Washington; tackle, Dick Wing, Washington Twp.; and James Jones, Easton; guards, Arnie Chew, Allentown Allen, who also played at tackle, and Steve Kush, Windber; center, Jim David, Hazleton; halfbacks, Bobby Hlodan, Albert Gallatin; Gary Lowman, Clarion, and fullback, Dick Shaffer of Williamstown.

SNOWBERGER PICKED
Tackles John Monago of Bradford and Norman Snowberger of Chambersburg and quarterback Gingrich were top third team choices. Here again, they missed a higher spot by narrow margins in tight voting.

The other third team members were: Ends, Gary Whitman, Lock Haven, and Dan Spanish, New Castle; guards, Tony Degeralomo, Farrell, and Ellery Seitz, Bellefonte; center, Bill Poichal, Bellefonte; halfbacks, Hal Myers, East Stroudsburg, and Bill Wyland, Lock Haven, (actually a fullback) and fullback Pete Duranko, Johnstown, Catholic.

Duranko and Seitz were all-state honorable mention selections a year ago.

Honorable Mention
Ends—Bill Flickinger, Somerset; Fred Klages, Ambridge; Dennis Koslowski, Hazleton; Dick Snyder, Gov. Mifflin; Jim Rodney, Pen Argyl; Ronald Kinsey, Middletown.

Tackles—Tom Raymond, Bethlehem Center; Pete Desantis, Butler; Gilbert Gray, Titusville; Bill Wischniewski, Wilkes-Barre Meyers; Tom Cypher, Tussey Mountain; Tom Haverstock, Central Dauphin.

Guards—Steve Schreckengast, Central Dauphin; Walt Miller, Franklin; Joe Beck, York Suburban; Lowell Taylor, Waynesboro; Rich Coleman, Edgewood.

Centers—Mike Vincent, Corry; Jim Kaibas, Farrell; Al Sabo, McKeesport.

Quarterbacks—George Gimble, Wilkes-Barre Meyers; Bob Blet-

THRILLER FROM START
The Patterson-McNeeley scrap was a thriller from the very start. There were so many knockdowns and slips that arguments raged as to whether the former Michigan State football tackle was down eight, nine or ten times, and whether Patterson actually was dropped or slipped in the fourth round.

The Associated Press count had McNeeley down eight times when he was given the mandatory eight-counts, and twice on slips which might have been knockdowns.

Referee Jersey Joe Walcott, the former heavyweight champion, ruled there were two slips by McNeeley and that Patterson went down on a slip in the fourth round.

PATTERSON HURT
McNeeley, a strong, 6-2, 197-pounder, was knocked down once in the first round, four times in the third, and three times in the 2:51 fourth round. Walcott ruled he also slipped once in the first round and once in the third. Patterson admitted he was hurt a couple of times in the third and fourth rounds.

"I knew when I was hit in the fourth round," said the champion, "but I was never seriously in trouble."

Although he had the brawny but inexperienced McNeeley going up and down like a rubber ball, Patterson still didn't look like a 10-1 favorite. Crude as he was the crotch blond from Arlington, Mass., gave the slick champion plenty of trouble.

After being knocked down twice in the third round, McNeeley, blood trickling from a wound under his right eye, stormed after Patterson like a wild man. He belted the surprised champion with a right to the jaw that hurt and brought roars from the crowd.

KNEES BUCKLED
But Patterson took over and dropped McNeeley twice more officially and once more with a punch but the last was ruled a slip.

The challenger, who had been unbeaten in 23 previous fights in a 3-1-3 year career, brought the fans to their feet in the fatal fourth when he clouted Patterson with a right. The champ's knees appeared to buckle and his hand touched the canvas, helping him to leap up quickly. That was when Walcott called it a slip.

Then Patterson, with his cornermen calling for him to press the attack, tore in and felled his bleeding victim from two eight counts with barrages and then finally

Patterson, Liston Both Win Heavyweight Bouts By KO's; See Possibility Of Showdown

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
TORONTO (AP)—Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's fourth round knockout of lion-hearted Tom McNeeley Jr. in a wild, eight-knockdown brawl and Sonny Liston's dynamic one-punch blitz of Albert Westphal stirred up the possibility today of a $10-million showdown between the two victors.

The battle of the Sixties may not come off soon. Although Patterson, according to those very close to him, wants it badly, Liston hungers for it, and promoters Al and Tom Bolan, among others, desire it, cautious Cus D'Amato, the champ's manager, is in no hurry.

More to Cus' liking for the next fight is Henry Cooper, the British heavyweight champion, who meets contender Zora Foley of Chandler, Ariz., in London tonight. That's what D'Amato told the Associated Press.

DECLINED ANSWER
Patterson, unmarked and very fresh after his victory Monday night, declined to answer when asked if he would give Liston a crack at the title. He merely pointed to his manager.

"Liston can have a fight next week if he wants it," said D'Amato. "He knows what he must do to get it. It is up to him. That is all I can say."

He declined to elaborate. Patterson said he would like to fight again early next year.

Liston, after flattening Westphal with one right hand to the jaw in 1:58 of the first round at Philadelphia's Convention Hall, said "I'm ready for him right now."

"BEEN SCARED"
"He's been scared of me for more than a year and a half," said Liston, the reinstated No. 1 contender from Philadelphia who has had several scrapes with the law.

The Patterson-McNeeley winging in which Patterson went down on a so-called slip, at Maple Leaf Gardens, and the Liston-Westphal quickie formed a closed-circuit television double-header that was shown in about 150 theaters and arenas in the United States and Canada. It was also beamed to homes in 51 community antenna community systems.

Irving B. Kahn, president of TelePrompT, which handles the ancillary rights (TV, radio, movies), estimated that he could line up 1,500,000 seats at an average $5 a head for a Patterson-Liston fight. The gate at a place like New York's Yankee Stadium could produce a $2.5-million gross at a $100 top, experts figured.

WANTS TO FIGHT
He didn't look too confident about it. The joy of his quick knockout of the 36-year-old Westphal seemed to have evaporated for the giant Negro. The impression was Liston felt he was walking a dead end street. He wanted Patterson to fight him, not respect him.

As for the Westphal fight, it wasn't. The stocky, blond foreigner admitted he came to this country for the $12,000 purse, a $1,750 expense account and three airplane tickets, and with an everything-to-gain-nothing-to-lose philosophy. A former German heavyweight champion now fourth ranked, he never had a chance in a colossal mismatch.

Liston chased the German for a bit, then lashed out with a right cross that caught Westphal flush on the jaw. He toppled to the canvas face first and lay there motionless for about three minutes after being counted out by Referee Zach Clayton.

FIRST SOLID PUNCH
The right cross was the first solid punch Liston threw. It was all he needed for win No. 33, knockout No. 23 in a 34-fight career. He earned $75,000 for less than two minutes effort.

Westphal lost his ninth bout in 36 fights. He said it was the first time he'd ever been knocked off by his feet. The husband of a German woman journalist described Liston as the "best fighter I saw ever." Would he like to meet Sonny again. The answer was an emphatic "No."

Liston demonstrated that his recent brushes with the police—he was acquitted of all charges in court—and his suspension by the State Athletic Commission from July to October, hadn't dulled his hammer-like fists. He enjoyed settling a fight out of court.

with a left-hand combination to the jaw for the full count of ten. It was Patterson's ninth title fight, all of them ending in knockouts. He lost one to Ingemar Johansson. Patterson's record now is 38-2 including 29 knockouts.

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sonny Liston says very little. His impassive face successfully hides his inner thoughts. Still, one gets the impression Liston feels heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson won't give him a shot at the title.

Liston and Patterson fought on the same card Monday night in different cities and against different opponents. The magic of television made it possible. In a closed circuit TV fight double-header, Liston, 212½, knocked out Albert Westphal, 195, of Germany in 1:58 of the first round before 4,000 fans—they paid $25.00—in Philadelphia's Convention Hall.

Moments after the Philadelphia heavyweight fired a right cross to the jaw rendering the German master baker senseless for about three minutes, Patterson successfully defended his crown against Tom McNeeley, knocking out the Arlington, Mass., challenger in 2:51 of the fourth round at Toronto, Canada.

"NO SWEAT"
Liston, who said the only sweat he raised was warming up in his corner before the bell, didn't even bother to shower or dress. He swished a robe over his trunks and hurried to a nearby room to watch the Patterson-McNeeley fight.

The 28-year-old Liston watched the Patterson fight intently. He said virtually nothing as sports writers pressed him for comment after each round. He did comment after the third that Patterson was missing a lot of punches.

Then it was over and Patterson, as expected, was still the champ. Patterson was asked about his future plans. Would he fight Sonny Liston next?

DODGED QUESTION
Liston leaned forward in his seat, a blank expression on his face. Patterson then professed "the greatest respect for Sonny Liston—in the ring." The champ had dodged the question.

Liston jerked back into his seat, his first overt act of disappointment. He mumbled something about being sorry Floyd didn't come out and say flatly Sonny was next.

A reporter asked Liston, "Do you think your performance tonight scared Patterson?"

"How long have I been the No. 1 challenger?" asked Liston. "About a year and a half," someone volunteered.

"That's how long he's been scared of me," Liston said. Then he clammed up, refused to make any comment on the Patterson fight, declined to say whether he thought he'd get the title shot.

ALABAMA AND GOPHERS HEAD 18 BOWL TEAMS

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
Alabama's Crimson Tide, unbeaten and untied in 10 regular season games, heads a list of 18 major college football teams that will participate in those always interesting postseason football games, beginning with Saturday's infant Gotham Bowl in New York.

Alabama, which buried Auburn 34-0 Saturday to wrap up its first perfect season in 16 years, will meet Southwest Conference co-champion Arkansas (8-12) in New Orleans' Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day.

The Tide, a bright and shiny product after four years of refurbishing by Coach Bear Bryant, was one of four schools to nail down bowl spots Saturday. Minnesota's Gophers (7-2) got the much-wanted Rose Bowl spot opposite Big Five champion UCLA (7-3).

IN COTTON BOWL
Mississippi, after its 37-7 victory over Mississippi State, announced it would meet Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Both finished 9-1. Rice (7-3) won its crucial game against Gotham Bowl-bound Baylor, 26-14, and became Kansas' (6-3-1) opponent in the Dec. 16 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, Tex.

The only unfinished business is the naming of the year's No. 1 college team. Alabama is expected to get that honor hands-down in this week's final Associated Press poll.

The Gotham Bowl, which never got off the ground in 1960 and was a question mark until last Thursday, will pit unbeaten, but once-tied Utah State's Skyline Conference (9-0-1) co-champions against Baylor (5-5) Saturday at New York's Polo Grounds.

OTHER GAMES
The following week, Miami (7-3), which ended its season with a 15-6 victory over Florida Saturday, journeys north to Philadelphia Stadium to meet Syracuse (7-3) in the third annual Liberty Bowl.

Penn State (7-3) plays Georgia Tech (7-3) in the Gator Bowl on Dec. 30. Tech also wound up the regular season on a happy note, beating Georgia 22-7 Saturday.

Villanova (8-2) meets Wichita (7-3) in the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Tex., also on Dec. 30.

Colorado (9-1) meets Louisiana State, co-southeastern conference champion with Alabama in the Orange Bowl. LSU finished with a 9-1 mark. Colorado beat Air Force 29-12 in its final game Saturday.

Last Half Rally Gives Bullets 86-63 Win Over Dickinson; Frosh Triumph

The Red Devils of Dickinson almost put the double whammy on Bob Hulton's Gettysburg College basketball team as the Bullets had to come from behind late in the game to take an 86-63 decision, Monday evening on the Eddie Plank gym floor.

The win marked the second of the season for the Bullets. Dickinson was inaugurating its 1961-62 campaign and, from all indications, could cause trouble in the college division of the MAC.

Gettysburg had a rough time finding the basket in the first half. The Bullets landed 15 of 37 shots and collected only 19 rebounds. During the same first 20 minutes, Dickinson hit on 15 of 34 field shots and walked off with 25 rebounds. One of the big differences came in the second half when the Bullets began fighting for the loose balls and eventually outscored the Red Devils in the last 20 minutes, 37-18.

Bob Parker, Ron Warner and George Burnett dumped five points to Dickinson's two on fouls by Wes James and Bill Schantzbech to take a 5-2 lead after 2:01 of play. The Red Devils moved ahead on jumps by Schantzbech and Becker to make it 8-5 Dickinson. From this point on it was a nip-and-tuck battle with Dickinson holding the upper hand the rest of the half.

The Red Devils held a 36-34 advantage at intermission. Both teams saw-seawed the points not more than two at a time, until the 15:21 mark of the second half when Warner rammed through a jump shot at the key to knot the score at 47-47. Parker then put the Bullets in front for the first time since early in the first half when he dunked a jump from the foul circle. Following a Dickinson time out, the Bullets began to find their way.

BULLETS MOVE AHEAD
Wes James knotted the count for the last time on a set to make it 49-49 at 14:39. Parker, one of the finest clutch players around, came back quickly to hit on a jump. Rodger Gaekler registered a foul and deep corner jump as the Bullets moved to a 54-49 lead.

Parker, Warner and Simpson helped the home team to build a 78-61 advantage. Schantzbech went in for a lay-up to make it 78-63 at 1:34. In the last minute and a half Doug Kepner and Ted Koerner landed two-pointers while John Fleming and Koerner added charity tosses.

Warner once again set the scoring pace for the Bullets with 23 tallies, but Parker finished a close second with 20 points and Simpson had 15. Gene Becker, a former high school teammate of Warner, was high for the Red Devils with 22.

John Carpenter's Gettysburg freshmen club rolled up its second consecutive win by downing the Dickinson reserves 78-50. The win was the ninth straight over a two-year period for Carpenter's yearlings. George Strouse and Charles Gault paced the frosh with 17 and 14 points respectively. Tony Hermann netted 15 for the losers. Rodger Ecker, a home grown product, turned in a fine performance with his playmaking and shooting. Ecker landed five of eight goals and one for one from the foul line for 11 tallies. He also collected six important rebounds.

Monday's clash was the last Bullet home game prior to the Christmas vacation. Athletic Director Henry T. Bream is also hopeful that it marked the final intercollegiate clash on the Eddie Plank gym floor. The Bullets are expected to play their next home game against Bucknell on January 4 in the new physical education building if everything goes according to schedule.

PLAY IN YORK
The Bullet yearlings will travel to York on Wednesday to clash with York Junior College on the Central York High School floor. Bob Hulton's varsity will make the same trip to the same court on Thursday to meet Susquehanna at 9 p.m. The game will be played for the benefit of the Sertoma Club of York.

15 ACCIDENTAL DEATHS IN PA. OVER WEEKEND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fifteen persons died in accidents in Pennsylvania over the weekend, including nine traffic victims and a man and two children who perished in separate fires.

Two men were killed in an industrial accident and a youth was asphyxiated at his hunting camp, accounting for the other fatalities from 6 p.m. Friday until midnight Sunday.

One traffic accident claimed three lives. Eugene McGovern, 15, Mountaintop R. 4; Leo Politz, 18, Ashley; and Stanley Grokowski, 19, also of Ashley, were killed Saturday when their car crashed into a bridge post and power pole about 15 miles north-east of Hazleton.

TWO FATAL FIRES
Among the other traffic accidents was one four miles north of Manheim in Lancaster County Sunday which killed Lindsey Daniels, 33, of Manheim. Police said Daniels' car, heading south on Route 2, failed to negotiate a curve and collided with an auto driven by Norman Schnoke, 41, of Pine Grove, Schuylkill County. Schnoke and a passenger, Edward Reed, 41, also of Pine Grove, suffered cuts of the body.

A fire in the Beaver County community of Aliquippa Sunday took the lives of Kenny James Novack, 3, and his sister, Cheryl Ann, 2. Firemen said the children were trapped in their second floor bedroom where the blaze broke out.

Another fire, also in western Pennsylvania Sunday, killed Edward Minerd, 33, a coal miner. The blaze destroyed Minerd's two room frame house in Connellsville.

HUNTING TRAGEDY
The victims of the industrial accident were Mondo Martini, 4, and Clyde Shaffer, 40, both of Clarion. The millwrights were killed Sunday at a Clairton steel plant by steel plates which fell on the men as they were stacking them. U.S. Steel Corp. officials said the plates, about six feet by eight, apparently had been stacked too high.

Perry Smith, 19, York R.D. 2, was found asphyxiated Sunday at a camp site near Galetown in Tioga County. Officials said he and a hunting companion were overcome by coal gas escaping from a stove in their small cabin. The companion was taken to a hospital in serious condition.

The other victims:
Mrs. Irma Albaugh, 69, of Warren, killed Sunday when she and a companion were struck by a car as they walked to church in night

Another Freedom Ride Is Planned

MILFORD, Del. (AP)—A freedom ride motorcade is planned for Dec. 16 aimed at breaking down more racial barriers reported in restaurants along U.S. Route 40 in Maryland and Delaware, it was announced at a meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

James Peck, editor of "The CORE Corelator," official publication of the Congress of Racial Equality, said Sunday that four of 35 Maryland restaurants along Route 40 which had agreed to admit Negro patrons weren't living up to that promise.

He said 12 Delaware restaurants which agreed to serve Negro patrons prior to a planned freedom ride Nov. 11 were living up to the agreement.

Peck said the Dec. 16 motorcade would be in the nature of a cleanup campaign to get all the restaurants to discard what he called discriminatory practices.

WILL BATTLE REDS ALONE

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker says he'll go it alone in his fight against communism.

"I will not be affiliated with anyone in particular," he declared Sunday when asked whether he would carry out his programs through such organizations as the John Birch Society.

"I intend to be myself and stay unassociated with any organization or any individual except the necessary personal staff to carry on my correspondence and my assistance in my program and objective. I am not going to be a principal spokesman for anyone but Edwin A. Walker."

Walker quit the Army last month following removal from his command of the 24th Division in Germany last May. It came after an investigation of complaints

TEACHER KILLED
Dennis Bienvenour, 4, Dover, Pa., was killed Sunday when he was hit by a car as he played near his home.

LEADERS CAN'T AGREE ON RULE OF REPUBLIC

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Government and opposition representatives reopened negotiations Sunday on a unity government to end the island nation's political crisis but an opposition leader said the talks "have not advanced at all."

A general strike backing demands of the National Civic Union—the largest opposition group—that President Joaquin Balaguer quit in favor of a provisional junta government entered its seventh day.

Viriato A. Fiallo, head of the civic union, cabled the Organization of American States in Washington asking the "urgent presence" of an OAS observation team because of the "extremely grave" political situation.

"A vacuum in the civil power threatens the installation of supreme military power with liquidation of all vestiges of democracy," Fiallo said.

OPPOSE BALAGUER
Fiallo said after an hour-long conference with Balaguer's representatives, the civic union was adamant that Balaguer must step down before any new government could be formed.

Thirteen rebellious air force officers seeking the removal of Gen. Pedro Rodriguez Echavarria, the armed forces chief, claimed the support of most fellow officers for their charges that Rodriguez Echavarria was leading the nation toward a military dictatorship.

Rodriguez Echavarria charged in turn that the officers wanted the military to take over the government but that he had refused. The air force accepted the officers' resignations.

La. Col. Nelson Gonzalez Pomares, who was air force deputy chief of staff, said the officers' only aim was to eliminate the armed forces from politics.

A Lovelier You

THE DELICATE ARCH. A pretty foot is delicately arched, but there should be nothing the least bit delicate about the arch muscles. They must be steel-strong.

It is a sure sign that the arch muscles are weak when they tend to sag toward the floor with every step. And should you discover your feet performing in that manner, do take corrective measures. Otherwise, your feet and legs may develop nagging aches.

Corrections takes two forms. The first is a strengthening exercise: Barefoot, sit on the floor with the legs straight out and together. Without bending your knees, turn the feet toward each other and try to make the soles touch; as you do this arch the foot and contract the toes; hold the position for five counts. Relax and repeat twenty times daily.

The second corrective is an exercise sandal, with a hard sole shaped to the contours of a normal foot. Walking for a short period each day on the contoured surface not only helps to condition your arches, but also improves the pattern of your walk by encouraging a natural toe-gripping function.

When you walk as nature intended, your weight rolls through the center of your foot and then the toes grip the ground as the other foot takes over. Most of us lose this action with the passing years. The restoration of it is vital to carefree feet and legs. Not to mention a willowy walk!

Reading Railroad Asks Service Cut

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Reading Railroad asked the Public Utility Commission Monday for permission to discontinue service on two lines between Pottsville and Shamokin and between Harrisburg and Allentown.

The road also asked permission to drop round trips from its Philadelphia to Reading service and two trips between Philadelphia and Jersey City, a spokesman said.

He said the proposed curtailment of service is necessary because of steps taken by the Post Office Department and the Railway Express to divert mail and express to the highways.

These actions, he said, mean the loss of all mail and express

Want Shorter Hours; Same Pay

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The United Steelworkers have renewed their plea for a shorter work-week with no cut in pay.

Asserting that automation is steadily reducing the number of jobs in the steel industry, the USW issued a statement Saturday saying that a shorter-work week would be a good remedy for the problem.

"Contrast the bleak picture of steelworker unemployment and community distress with the rosy performance of the industry," the statement said, "and the finding will reveal that the rewards of progress have been uneven."

The statement added, "A shorter work-week in the industry is not so impossible as the industry would have us believe. A 32-hour week would have created 45,300 annual jobs in 1958, 65,400 more jobs in 1959 and 56,600 more jobs in 1960."

TIE STRANGLES DELAWARE BOY; SURGEON FAILS

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—It began at 12:30 p.m. Saturday in the tiny suburb of Elsmere.

And in the 26 hours and 30 minutes which followed despair, hope, courage, determination and life raced through the hearts of those involved.

But in the end, tragedy prevailed, just as it had at the start when 11-year-old Kathleen Jordan found her 8-year-old brother, Dennis, hanging by his neck from a shower curtain rod in the bathroom of the family home.

The boy was rushed to Wilmington General Hospital. A doctor in the emergency room pronounced him dead. Despair filled the hearts of his parents, James and Elizabeth Jordan.

LIVES 24 HOURS
But Dr. Howard Wilk, a surgeon whose own heart was filled with hope and courage, opened Dennis' heart and began a cardiac massage. Determined, Wilk massaged for three hours, finally reviving the heart and bringing life.

Dennis lived for nearly 24 hours. He died Sunday at 3 p.m.

Police said the boy accidentally strangled himself with a necktie tied to the shower curtain rod. They said he apparently had been playing and slipped off the bathtub while the necktie was looped over the rod. The Jordans told police Dennis liked to play with string and rope and often tried to tie himself up.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—The 37-year-old wife of an unemployed mineworker has given birth to triplets, making a total of 10 children in the family.

The first baby, a girl, was born to Mrs. Thomas Bonk at 1:16 p.m. Sunday in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. She weighed three pounds, eight ounces. A boy was delivered 10 minutes later and a second boy 10 minutes after the first. The first boy weighed four pounds, the second three pounds nine ounces.

The triplets were placed in incubators and were reported in good condition.

The Bonks now have six boys and four girls. The other children range in age from three to 19.

U.S. WILL TEST AND TALK WITH SOVIET UNION

By STANLEY JOHNSON
MOSCOW (AP)—The Russians tried again Sunday night to put the blame on the West for continuance of nuclear weapon tests.

The Soviet government declared that unless the Western powers stop all nuclear weapons tests—including underground explosions that don't produce radioactive fallout—it will resume "such nuclear tests as it deems necessary for the consolidation of its defense capacity."

A few hours after the Moscow warning the United States announced it had set off a low-yield underground nuclear blast Sunday and is preparing to go ahead with another test next Sunday.

"Our announced policy is to test Sunday in St. Joseph's Hospital.

He was hit Thursday while delivering papers three miles west of the city. State police said the driver was H. M. Eberly, 67, of Lititz.

and talk," a State Department spokesman said in Washington.

The Russians, who broke a three-year moratorium on nuclear testing Sept. 1 for a series of big to gigantic nuclear explosions in the atmosphere, said the time has come now "for the early achievement of an agreement which would rid the peoples of experimental weapon blasts."

The Soviet call for an end to testing made no mention of supervising any new moratorium as demanded by the Western powers.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, distributed the Soviet statement. It said it was issued in connection with last week's resumption of the Geneva test ban talks.

TALKS DEADLOCKED
The Geneva talks are hopelessly deadlocked as a result of a new Soviet refusal to admit any inspectors of a test ban to Soviet territory and the West's rejection of the Soviet demand for an unsupervised test moratorium.

The Soviet return to the Geneva talks last week was interpreted as an indication they had completed their series of tests that included the biggest man-made explosion—one carrying a force of 50 million tons or more of TNT.

President Kennedy has said the United States also will resume testing in the atmosphere if the government feels this necessary for Western defense.

SANTA and the FLYING SHOE

by Lucrece Beale

SYNOPSIS: Ferdinand, the king of Polydora, is dictating his letter to Santa Claus when suddenly there is an enormous crash. A palace watchman rushes in to announce that the sky has fallen!

CHAPTER TWO

THE BIG HOLE

The King and his secretary peered out from under the mountain of detective stories that had buried them when the mysterious crash shook the palace.

"What on earth happened?" stammered the secretary.

"It — it's the sky!" cried the wide-eyed watchman. "It has fallen in the Public Square!"

"Nonsense!" murmured the King as he crawled around the floor on his hands and knees looking for his spectacles. "Did you SEE the sky fall?"

"Not exactly," faltered the watchman.

"What did you see?"

"Well nothing, to be truthful," said the watchman. "When the crash came it shook me awake—I mean, away—and then I picked myself up and ran as fast as I could to report to your Majesty."

The King found his spectacles between the pages of "The Case of the Missing Suspenders"—one of his favorite mysteries. The spectacles were cracked at the bridge but still usable. He put them on and rose to his feet.

"If the sky fell," he said reasonably, "it wouldn't fall in just one little piece. It would be on top of the whole palace. We'd be buried in sky!"

The watchman nodded dutifully. Then he blurted, "Never-the-less, only the sky falling could have made the earth quake so!"

"Well, I shall see for myself what the trouble is," said the King. He spoke bravely but he was far from feeling brave. He forced himself to march regally—head up and shoulders back—down the corridors to the winding palace stairs while the watchman trailed meekly in his shadow.

As he marched he could hear his palace guards running down other corridors and from the streets he heard the sound of many people gathered there facing the danger.

As he went out the door, the King drew his sword.

He expected to find a giant, a monster, a leviathan in the Public Square. What he found was a hole in the ground. The hole was about half a block long and two feet deep. It was surrounded by excited townspeople who walked 'round and 'round it searching for its cause.

Most of the hole covered the Public Gardens but at the very tip there was the crushed remains of the home of the Minister of Finance. As the Minister was away collecting taxes at the time and as he wasn't very popular anyway, no one was too upset by this but all were grateful that they themselves hadn't been in the way of whatever made the hole.

Then someone said that since they didn't know what happened, who could say it might not happen again only this time the mountain or the sky or whatever it was might land on their very selves? This set off a panic and all the people rushed to their homes and hid under the beds thinking foolishly that if something did land on them at least it would take a little longer to get to them.

Meantime, the King's Ministers met in the Great Throne Room to decide on a course of action.

"We must call out the militia," said the Minister of War. "We have been attacked by some foreign power with a strange new weapon."

The Court Astronomer rose to say, "It is my belief that we have been struck from outer space by a meteor which dissolved on contact with the earth and—"

The Minister of Agriculture interrupted, "We must move at once to protect the crops and livestock and—"

And so on and on, the Ministers grappled with the problem and so intent were they that not one of them noticed that the King himself was not present nor, indeed, had he been seen since he had first left the palace.

(Tomorrow: The King Looks for Clues)

The Ministers grappled with the problem.

Complaint Of Poor Morale, Supply Shortages Coming From National Guard Camps

By RALEIGH ALLSBROOK
NEW YORK (AP)—Complaints of poor morale and supply shortages are arising at some of the camps where National Guard and reserve units have been called back into service.

As during World War II and the Korean War, the military is being accused of using "hurry up and wait" tactics—hurrying men into uniform and then not being prepared for them.

Has the military actually let down the men it called back to the colors or are the complaints, as draft director Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey commented, simply the traditional griping of soldiers?

Pentagon sources say that out of 19,000 Army reservists and Guardsmen called back, less than 1 per cent have put in complaints.

Based on letters and other communications received at all Army levels.

Maj. Gen. William H. Harrison, president of the National Guard Association, said "the griping of a few individuals" is casting a shadow upon the patriotism and spirited response of the Guardsmen and reservists.

"These complaints, in some instances," he said, "are from men who have already served on extended active duty and resent a second callup when so many of their friends and neighbors have performed no military service."

He said there should be changes in the law and policy.

The matter reached a climax last week when President Kennedy devoted a part of his news conference to answering critics.

The President, whose own record includes heroic wartime service in the Navy, took particular note of complaints about Ft. Lewis, Wash.

He said the men there may be serving in a cold and windy camp, but they "are rendering the same kind of service to our country as an airplane standing at 15-minute alert at a SAC base in Omaha is rendering."

"We call them in to prevent a war, not to fight a war."

But he asked them to recognize that they are contributing to the security of their families and he held out hope they may be sent home short of their required 12 months of service.

"CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE"

Maj. Gen. Edward H. McDaniel, Army inspector general, is investigating conditions at Ft. Lewis, where Rep. Alvin O'Konski, R-Wis., has made accusations of "criminal negligence."

The Wisconsin representative started a controversy over whether the Army made adequate preparations there to take care of his state's 32nd Infantry Division.

He called it a "lost division" with obsolete and poorly operating weapons and short supplies.

This brought a denial by the Army and a charge from the division commander, Maj. Gen. H. A. Smith, that O'Konski had damaged the unit's morale and made the troops appear a "bunch of crybabies."

IS CONTRADICTED

Most of O'Konski's charges also were contradicted indirectly by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., who followed him on an inspection of the camp.

Proxmire reported he found many things wrong, but that the Army was making a sincere effort to straighten them out.

Other complaints have developed at Ft. Polk, La., where National Guardsmen from a number of Southern and Western states have been training.

A group of nearly 100 enlisted men from the 49th Armored Division there wrote a letter to Rep. Joe Kilgore, D-Tex., complaining about conditions.

They also protested that while they had prior service "back at home there are those who have never been called to duty."

CLOSED SINCE 1954

An information officer at the camp declared that since a part of it had been closed since 1954, some of the buildings naturally "were going to deteriorate."

But he said that conditions were improving rapidly and that many of the shortages complained of already have been fixed.

Congressional complaints also arose over Air National Guard units called up and sent overseas.

Rep. George Huddleston, D-Ala., said he had received reports that some members of the 117th Reconnaissance Wing, now based in Paris, were just sitting around with nothing to do.

Pentagon officials blamed it on air traffic control problems and said discussions were under way with French authorities to clear up the situation.

Reporter Jack Foisie of the San Francisco Chronicle visited Ft. Ord in California and said troops were spending their time waiting for equipment, listening to old lectures, seeing old training films and "manicuring" their barracks areas.

Despite the criticism of some camps, reports from other military installations indicated few complaints.

All Indications Point To Very Good Xmas Business

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The Christmas spirit must be inspiring both the business statisticians and the business soothsayers. The news lean heavily today to the jolly side. The predictions, as you might guess, are even cheerier.

Most official figures pouring out of government agencies and industry's haunts plot an upward trend in business activity. Many sight records in the making for December—such as in retail sales volume. Most of the rest chart the emergency from the early fall lull and resumption of the advance in industrial output and orders.

The soothsayers go farther. One group of business economists reporting over the weekend to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce sees 1962 setting records in production, income and profits.

STEEL ORDERS MOUNT

Backing them up are such items as these:

Steel orders finally have begun to mount — perhaps to build up stocks in the first half of 1962 as a hedge against a possible steel strike in the summer. Mills are beginning to plan increased output. This has been holding close to 70 per cent of capacity for some time, but some say it could soon rise to 80 per cent.

Auto retail sales have perked up. And some think output this month could top last December by 20 per cent or more.

One tip here is that consumer debt has begun to rise, with most of the increase in installment credit in auto paper. The latest reported gain is the biggest in almost a year.

MANY NEW HOMES

Spending on construction, both current and planned, has begun to rise. The Department of Commerce is particularly impressed by the outlook for home building. It estimates 1.3 million private housing units will have been started this year by New Year's Eve.

And it thinks that next year another 1.4 million will be going up. Public housing is put at 50,000 units this year and 55,000 next.

Business spending for new plant and equipment also is expected to rise next year. Higher costs will account for some of the increase. But if output and profits advance as some hope, the physical volume of construction will be up, too.

SALES VOLUME UP

At the consumer level, economists note with joy that sales volume is on the increase. The latest weekly figure on department store sales show them 6 per cent above the like week of 1960.

Predictions of total Christmas sales this year run 4 to 6 per cent ahead of last year. Shoppers are reported buying carefully but not pinching pennies when they find what they want.

Both merchants and manufacturers are taking comfort from the state of the money market. The money managers are seeing to it that the banks have plenty of reserves for financing Christmas trade and for making loans when and if industrialists want them for expanding activity.

And the economists have their own source of comfort. Despite all the optimism that has bubbled up of late, there's no sign yet of a runaway boom psychology that could be dangerous. Purchasing agents report ordering is still being held within realistic bounds. Expansion plans are being tailored close to reasonable expectations of industrial demand.

Predict Farmer's Share Of Food Dollar To Drop

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

HARRISBURG (AP)—The U.S. Agriculture Department forecasts that the farmer's share of the consumer's food purchase dollar will shrink again next year.

The U.S. Economic Research service said in an item buried in a new report:

"Increases in the retail cost and marketing charges with no increase in the farm value may cause the farmer's share of the consumer's farm food dollar to drop to 37 cents next year."

DOWN CENT A YEAR

The share expected for 1961 is 38 cents. Last year it averaged 39 cents. The average in the post World War II years was 50 cents.

The growing margin between what the consumer pays and what the farmer gets is due to the steadily increasing costs of marketing, plus increasing profits in the retail food trades.

At the same time agricultural prices across the board are declining at the farm level.

MARGIN BOOSTED

The situation is highlighted in Pennsylvania by such facts as this:

The retail cost of poultry and eggs dropped 6 per cent during the July to September period below the same months in 1960. Yet, the spread between the farm cost and the retail cost increased slightly.

In other words, retailers not only got the advantage of a lower price at the farm because of surplus egg production—allowing them to sell more and cheaper eggs at retail—but they also boosted their margin.

Egg prices at the farm during that July to September period had dropped 10 per cent from the County, suffered a fatal heart attack Monday while hunting in nearby Cherry Grove Twp.

MORE FOR MIDDLEMAN

While producers during the year in Pennsylvania's two major farm industries—poultry and dairy—were floundering around trying to stay in business in the face of their self-producer surpluses, firms handling food increased their profits.

Much of the boosted profit margin probably can be attributed to the fact that many producers were in no position to bargain during the year. Total net profits for food processing firms, both before and after taxes were about 6 per cent higher. However, the percentage of profit return on sales and on equity in firms was at the same level as the previous year, the research service said.

COSTS TO RISE

Meanwhile, the service said the cost of marketing farm products probably will go up again next year, following a steady year-to-year trend since 1950.

Hourly earnings of workers in marketing of farm products will increase about 4 per cent, though transportation charges will remain about the same. And, said the research service:

"Many other costs will continue to inch upward."

The selection of the bald eagle's likeness for the Great Seal of the United States was deemed appropriate because of the bird's wide American range and the fact that eagles symbolized power and courage.

LEO CARRILLO WRITES BOOK ON HOLLYWOOD

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—As a last gesture of a full life, Leo Carrillo tossed a bouquet to his longtime love, California.

The result is on the bookstands now — "The California I Love" (Prentice-Hall, $7.50). While it tells little of the man Carrillo, it is a splendid view of a California that is fast disappearing among the tracts and freeways.

"The adobe is my birthstone," he writes, telling of his beginnings near the birthplace of Los Angeles itself—the Old Plaza. He carefully neglects reporting the year he was born. He was an actor who wanted to play the role of the dashing caballero even when he was pushing 80.

HAD GOOD REASONS

Carrillo had good reason for his pride in California. His great-grandfather had made the trek from Mexico with Father Serra and Capt. Gaspar de Portola in 1769. The Carrillos couldn't have gotten here sooner unless they were Indians.

The first half of "The California I Love" is a fascinating remembrance of the sleepy pueblo of Los Angeles. The Carrillos had to brighten the pleasant monotony of the weather.

The book throws some light on the rather cloudy origin of the name Hollywood. Carrillo wrote that a real estate promoter named Wilcox was viewing some property he had marked for subdivision. He asked a Mexican boy the name of some hillside plants that were bright with red berries.

LITTLE ON CAREER

"In Spanish it is toyan, but in English it is holly-wood," said the boy, copying the Spanish custom of following a plant name with "madera," meaning wood.

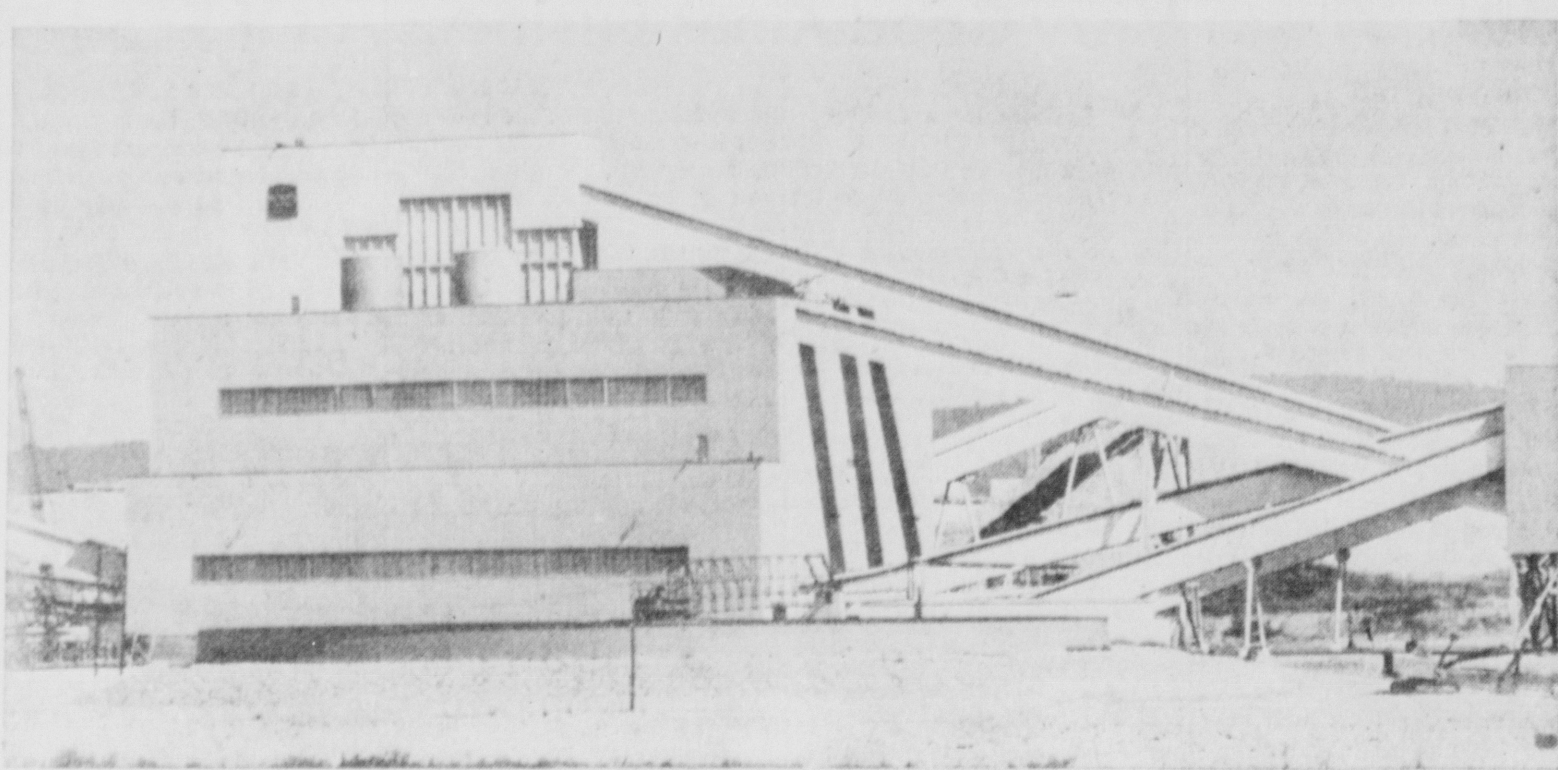

Carrillo pronounced it cay-reel-yoo, treating his acting career rather briefly in the book. His introduction to show business seems casual, being an outgrowth of the dialect stories he heard in his youth.

He became a vaudeville headliner with his Chinese, Mexican, Italian and Japanese stories. In those days a comedian could use dialect in a warm-hearted way without being accused of ridiculing a minority.

Carrillo was best known to this generation as Pancho of "Coco Kid" but he had little love for the Leo series.

Leo Carrillo left his testament and his mark. The Tournament of Roses parade on New Year's Day won't seem the same without him.

Bethlehem Steel Builds Colorful New Plant

The Bethlehem Steel Company's new west plant at its Hanover quarry will not only be one of the most efficient limestone treatment plants in the world, but also one of the most handsome. It is near completion in Oxwood Twp., northwest of Hanover.

Here is a plant that will soon turn out up to 1,200 tons of stone per hour, employing the most modern array of crushers, feeders, scrubbers and screens, connected by 2½ miles of enclosed conveyors. Yet it looks like a cluster of neat, trim industrial buildings on a college campus-type setting. Giant buildings, framed in low-lustre light-green-painted structural steel, glisten with porcelain enameled steel siding in colors of cream and beige. For striking contrast and to reduce glare, windows are green-tinted corrugated translucent fibre glass, trimmed with stainless steel.

The porcelainized industrial-type curtain walls are made of Bethlehem Steel's new one-coat direct-on-enameled steel, called Bethnamel. This installation, the first major industrial siding application of Bethnamel, involves 59,300 sq. ft. of insulated siding and about 200,000 sq. ft. of un-insulated sheeting.

ROLLED AT MD. PLANT

Bethnamel's unique properties have made possible the development of these attractive porcelain enamel industrial type sidings which are drilled on the job for installation. Bethnamel contains virtually no carbon; hence, the panel is free from sag, distortion, boiling and fish-scaling, which permits it to be merely one-coat enameled. With only one coat of enamel, the panels can be drilled in the field without chipping, and without rapid wearing or dulling of the drill bit.

Although Bethnamel costs no more than ordinary enameled steels, substantial reductions in Rapidly nearing completion, Bethlehem Steel Company's new limestone treatment plant at its Hanover quarry will be extremely efficient and strikingly handsome. Able to turn out up to 1,200 tons of stone per hour, the plant will be sheathed in porcelain enamel steel siding in colors of cream and beige, made of Bethlehem's new one-coat, direct-on-enameled steel, Bethnamel.

enameling costs can be realized by the elimination of the ground coat.

Rollled at Bethlehem Steel's Sparrows Point, Md., plant, the 20-gage Bethnamel sheets were direct-on coated with porcelain enamel by the Architectural Division of Calodic Corporation, Toppen, Pa. These Dura-Cor panels are color stable, self-cleaning, fire-proof, easy-to-erect, acid and alkali-resistant and maintenance-free.

BUILDINGS HEATED

The curtain wall siding material for this job came in four different shapes: a flat inner panel, a perforated inner panel, a deeply fluted outer panel and a standard corrugated outer panel. They all measure about two feet wide, but vary in length up to 12 feet to fit the dimensions of the various structures. These panels are used in combination to suit building requirements.

The main buildings, which are heated, use a flat inner panel and a fluted outer panel, with glass fiber insulation in between. The inner enameled panel presents a smooth, finished wall appearance and requires no maintenance. The deeply grooved outer panel casts interesting architectural shadows. Walls near running machinery in heated buildings employ perforated inner panels. The perforations permit the insulation between the panels to absorb sound. Nonheated buildings take merely the fluted outer paneling. The conveyor galleries are sheathed with corrugated panels.

Bethlehem's Lackawanna, N. Y., plant fabricated the fluted panels from the flat Bethnamel stock, and Hendrick Manufacturing Company, Carbondale, Pa., perforated the inner panels. All forming work, of course, was performed prior to enameled the panels.

IN OPERATION SOON

Installation of the porcelain enameled steel siding on the various quarry buildings was quick and simple, and required only a three-man crew. Two men worked from a scaffold, while the third fed materials from the ground.

Actual procedure in installing the siding begins with fastening the inner panels to the girts attached to the building's structural steel frame. Then subgirts are attached to the inner panels. Next, the insulation material, already cut to fit the paneling, is wedged in; and the outer paneling is fastened to the subgirts. Panels are connected to the building frame by stainless steel self-tapping screws with neoprene washers. These fasteners were made by the Fabricated Products Division, Townsend Manufacturing Company, West Newton, Pa.

The siding went up fast. Before drilling and fastening, the workmen made certain each panel was plum, aligned and level. Other than that, it was simply a matter of tacking up one piece after the other. The largest section weighed only 65 pounds. Curtain wall contractor was Richard Luz, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.

The new limestone plant is expected to be in full operation by 1962. Able to produce both commercial and metallurgical grades of limestone, the plant will ship most of its annual production of four million tons of limestone to Bethlehem's various steel plants, with the major portion going to its Sparrows Point, Md., plant.

MISS FLYNN STILL ACTIVE

NEW YORK (AP)—Elizabeth Gurley Flynn won't say if she is still national chairman of the Communist party of the U.S.A., but she made clear she intends to continue her activities as a party member.

The party has been indicted for failing to register with the federal government as an arm of the Soviet Union.

Addressing a Monday night rally on behalf of the Communist newspaper, The Worker, Miss Flynn, 70, suggested older persons should retire from their party posts to make way for new blood.

Asked about her own post, Miss Flynn replied: "At the present time, I can't discuss the party post. It's in legal litigation now." Then she added: "At least you see I'm not underground."

GOING TO SPAIN

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Four members of the family of Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo, the assassinated dictator, made plans today to leave for Spain.

It was reported that Orlando Trujillo, his wife and daughter, Neida and Florio Trujillo, have purchased one-way tickets to Madrid aboard Guest Airways and are scheduled to leave Friday.

STORK FINDS HUNTER

KANE, Pa. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Signorella of Tarentum went hunting for deer Monday but they came up with a deer.

Mrs. Signorella, 31, was rushed to Kane Community Hospital where she gave birth to a baby boy.

AUCTIONEER TO END DYNASTY AT LESTER, PA.

LESTER, Pa. (AP)—The chant of an auctioneer Tuesday will signal the final days of a 73-year-old piano making dynasty which over the years produced about four million instruments.

For the next two days the equipment of the Lester Piano Co. will be auctioned off, as the plant, which once employed 500 workers, begins to close its doors. Last week the firm's payroll was down to 27.

Company officials decided they could no longer afford to operate the plant because of declining sales, reflecting a national trend. The company was founded in 1888 by George Miller, a German immigrant who came to Philadelphia with his parents in the 1870s.

GOOD TIMES GONE

Miller began his piano firm in a center city location and later moved to Carbondale in Tintin Township. Eventually the city fathers changed the name from Carbondale to Lester in honor of its first big industry.

The biggest surge for the company came in the 1920s when player pianos and pianolas were popular. Sales of 350,000 instruments a year were achieved.

But radio soon began to reduce the piano's popularity, and production fell to 27,000 in the early 1930s. Sales were also affected by the depression.

During World War II Lester converted to war production, turning out airplanes and gliders.

BURROUGHS ON INJURED LIST

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Veteran defensive back Don Burroughs, who made three key interceptions in the Philadelphia Eagles' victory over Pittsburgh, has a painfully swollen right hand but he still hopes to see action against the New York Giants in a crucial National Football League game Sunday.

But the outlook is not so good for rookie defensive back Irv Cross, who suffered a concussion against the Steelers Sunday. The Northwestern star who has replaced the sidelined Tom Brookshier in the first unit is not expected to play Sunday.

Cross is in a Pittsburgh hospital for observation and probably will remain there at least until Wednesday.

Four other Eagles were injured in the Steelers' game but all are expected to be ready to go against the Giants in a game which matches the two top teams in the Eastern Conference, tied for the lead with 9-3 marks.

The four, linemen Stan Campbell, Ed Khayat, Dick Lucas and Marion Campbell, all were examined Monday. X-rays were negative.

PENNSY MANAGER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Howard C. Kohout has been named manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad's regional operations centered in Philadelphia, it was announced today. These include the PRR's main line to Lancaster and Harrisburg, several important branch lines and extensive commuter operations.

Kohout has been manager of the Buckeye region at Cincinnati for two years, and in his 25-year railroad career has held important engineering and transportation positions. These included that of manager of PRR's expanding TrueTrain service, the movement of motor trailers on railroad cars.

LIFT RACE BARRIER

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Florida Association of Colleges and Universities voted Monday to allow Negro institutions to apply for membership.

Dr. C. Doren Sharp, vice president of the University of Miami and president of the Florida group, said "all applications for membership will be received and acted upon regardless of race."

National Twist Contest Dec. 31

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Picture a huge room filled with cloth bags, each containing an angry wildcat. You should get the same visual effect New Year's Eve at Freedom Hall.

That's the date when William H. King will sponsor the first national Twist contest with several hundred squirming contestants and an expected 15,000 spectators. Prizes, in merchandise, will total about $5,000, King says, and entry is free. So, presumably, is first aid treatment.

SAYS KENNEDY IS NOT AGAINST BIG BUSINESS

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Business and government should be, can be, and must be friends if the goals of each are to be reached. And the chances of their working together are good, in the view of the chief of the nation's biggest nonfinancial business, if each will take a realistic approach to mutual problems.

This is how Frederick R. Kappel, board chairman of American Telephone & Telegraph, sizes up the question fretting many businessmen today:

Is the present administration antibusiness as has been widely charged, or is it a heart far from being antibusiness as President Kennedy is taking pains of late to emphasize?

BIAS AGAINST BIGNESS

Businessmen's fears that the administration was set on giving them a rough time center on the rush of antitrust suits, price fixing charges, antimerger moves, and what some have called a bias against bigness itself where business is concerned.

But Kappel told the Commonwealth Club of California in San Francisco Friday: "President Kennedy has taken pains to emphasize that he and his administration are not antibusiness. The force and sincerity of this position seem perfectly clear to me, for as the President has also brought out, the government is dependent on business progress for the realization of national objectives."

The head of a company with around $28 billion in assets, more than 2 million shareholders, and net income last year of $1.2 billion lists these goals as "Greater industrial production; an increase in business spending for plant and equipment; higher employment and a reduction in the rate of unemployment; and a higher over-all level of personal income."

HAS SOME TIPS

Among the problems are: the wage-price spiral, increasingly aggressive and effective foreign competition in both domestic and world markets, and a system of taxation "which now hampers vigorous personal and corporate performance."

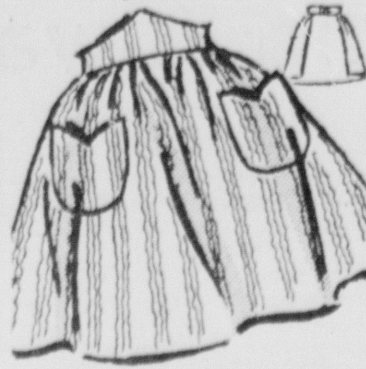

The business leader has some tips for the President on how the relations between government and business can be improved. One is consistency in government policy.

"If you cannot tell what is coming next, from what agency or from what government authority, you cannot even guess what your first step should be, let alone the next one," Kappel says.

LINKS PROFITS

He also wants the administration to give thought to the profit squeeze of which perhaps a majority of businessmen complain today. He blames the lowering of profit margins on rising operating costs, high taxes, and "inadequate depreciation allowances."

And he links profits to the goals of growth and employment. It goes this way: "One of our hopes for 1962 is for substantial increase in business spending for plant and equipment. Always in the past, this has been a vital factor in stimulating employment. But also, it has always depended heavily on profits, and the pick-up in profits has usually come first."

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ralph Dietrich, 59, veteran film director-producer, died Friday, apparently of a heart attack. He was born in New York.

DANVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Beulah MacFadden, 46, daughter of the late physical culture advocate and publisher Bernard MacFadden died Friday after a brief illness.

SULLIVAN'S SHOW KEEPS ROLLING ALONG

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—TV shows come and, inevitably, go. But Ed Sullivan's Sunday night hour—almost as old as television but as new as the latest teen-age singing smash—goes on, impervious to time.

The format of the CBS perennial, of course, is vaudeville. Although nowadays Sullivan's producer is going in for backdrops and elaborate production numbers, the attraction is still the prospect of fresh talent and big names each week.

Sunday night's outing was typical: a young singing discovery, Mike Clifford, plus singer Connie Francis. Then Sid Caesar in a couple of comedy sketches—one in fractured German was pure Caesar at his best—and Joan Sutherland, the new metropolitan opera sensation. If none of these was your dish, Ed pulled out Maurice Chevalier to say Merry Christmas. Something for everybody.

DULL SPY BUSINESS

CBS' "Twentieth Century" this season has been preoccupied with war, past hot ones and the current cold one. Sunday night's half-hour was a reminiscence by a Japanese sent to Pearl Harbor 20 years ago as a spy.

The man, now a gas station owner, was filmed as he revisited his wartime haunts in Hawaii. The voice of the translator unemotionally read his story.

To a reader of Eric Ambler and John Buchan, he certainly made the glamorous business of espionage sound like dull drudgery—reading up on Navy craft and studying "Jane's Fighting Ships" for background, hanging around public beaches and working in a Navy officers club in the hope he might overhear some secrets. He didn't.

NBC's mail department reports the show drawing the largest quantity of mail—and all approving—is "Sing Along With Mitch."

Bob Hope's 10th annual Christmas trip to entertain servicemen in remote outposts will take him and his troupe to Greenland, Labrador, Newfoundland and Baffin Island this year. The Arctic shows, as usual, will be filmed for later broadcast, although this season Hope's variety programs are few and far between.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Louis Armstrong, 68, great-grandson of former President John Tyler, died Friday. Jones, a government employee for 42 years, retired in 1953 as chief of the depository accounts branch in the General Account Office.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mrs. Thomas Parran, wife of the former surgeon general of the United States, died Saturday. Parran, who served as surgeon general for 12 years, is dean-emerita of the University of Pittsburgh's graduate school of public health.

NEW YORK (AP)—Thyra Samter Winslow, 68, who wrote novels, short stories, television and movie scripts, died Saturday. Miss Winslow was born in Fort Smith, Ark.
